Father Leete and Seminarian Pius will be doing a Q&A session this Sunday, July 26, at 7:00 PM on Facebook Live (where you watch Cathedral live-streaming events). Everyone is encouraged to join in at that time with their questions, or questions can be emailed to them beforehand to pious.nsoh-awasom@cathedralsj.org. Questions can be about anything, but also is an opportunity for our parishioners to get to know Fr. Leete and Pius better.

To view live-streaming events at Cathedral, go to Cathedral's website: <https://www.cathedralsj.org>, look under "Mass Times" and choose "Click Here". You will be taken directly to Cathedral's FB page, OR go to Cathedral's Facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/pg/CathedralStJoseph/videos/>

Soles for Christ – We will be collecting new athletic shoes for needy children to start school again this year. Please purchase any size that may fit a child in kindergarten through grade 12 and bring them to church by next weekend, August 1st and 2nd or drop them off at the Parish Office. If you have questions, call Kitty at 232-7763.

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and never forget all his benefits. (Ps 103)

Father Leete's message . . . "Nemo dat quod non habet." A Latin phrase that means, "You cannot give what you don't have."

When I entered the seminary, I registered as a member of Our Lady of Good Counsel parish in the Westport area of Kansas City. Msgr. Blacet was the Pastor of that parish and had been for a number of years.

Msgr. Blacet died recently at the age of 98, having been ordained in 1946. This was the era when most seminary classes were still taught in Latin so priests at that time were generally fluent in the language. One of my memories of the good Monsignor was the Latin phrase, "Nemo dat quod non habet." He would mention that to me often when I would complain about whatever struggles I was having in the seminary. His point was, if I didn't learn what I was sent to learn in the seminary, it would be impossible for me to pass that knowledge on to the people I would be serving as a priest. I can't give what I don't have. If I didn't study as diligently as I could in the seminary, I would be lacking when I was finished with school. And it might be that lack that would make me unable to lead a precious soul to Our Lord.

After all, this is why priests are ordained. A priest is not ordained to be an entertainer, a psychiatrist, a counselor, a money manager or a social worker. A priest is ordained to offer sacrifice on behalf of the living and the dead and to lead souls to Our Lord. Nothing is more important than that. The salvation of souls is the supreme law of the Church, as stated in the Church's own law book called the Code of Canon Law.

As I begin my assignment here at Cathedral, I ask you to please, in your charity, pray for me that I will use wisely what the Church in her goodness has given me: a philosophical and theological foundation for leading souls to Christ. I hope that I will, with God's grace, conscientiously apply what I've learned and that what I lack will be provided by the Holy Spirit. Whatever good I accomplish will only be done by allowing God to work through me. Whatever mistakes I make, those are all my own.

I thank you for the kind words of welcome I've received so far. Please pray for me and know that you are all in my daily prayers. I ask you to offer a prayer also for the repose of the soul of Msgr. Blacet. He spent over 70 years in the priesthood giving to the souls in his care what he had and led a countless number of them to Our Lord. May we all be that kind of good and faithful servant who passes on to others what has been so generously given to us.

It's not too late respond to the Pastoral Council's request for some new members. They currently are practicing social distancing and meeting monthly via zoom meeting (very easy to do). If you or someone you know would like to join them, please contact the Parish Office at 232-7763.

If you have any dry cleaners' clothes bags, please bring them to church or the Parish Office. They are used to cover the flowers being stored between seasons. Thank you!

The annual St. Patrick's Mexican Fiesta is taking a "siesta" this year, but you still have the opportunity to enjoy their famous Mexican food at home! St. Patrick Church is taking pre-orders NOW for cheese enchiladas ($20/dozen) and tamales ($25/dozen). Food pre-orders will be available for drive-thru pick-up on Saturday, September 5 from 3:00-6:00 PM and Sunday, September 6 from 12:00-2:00 PM at St. Patrick Church in the rectory's driveway (1813 S. 12th Street in St. Joseph). Please call Lisa Rocha at (816) 262-0674 or Sandra Becerra-Ortega at (816) 261-3140 to place your pre-order. Pre-orders are due by Sunday, August 16.

The Catholic young adult group of St. Joseph, Coram Deo, is meeting on Friday, August 7th, for First Fridays! Meet at St. Rose of Lima Parish at 6:10 PM for Adoration and Reconciliation, followed by Mass at 7:00 PM. All young adults aged 22-35 are invited to attend. Questions? Please contact Ally Goetz at agoetz@olog.org.

Stewardship makes a difference . . . Thank you to all of our vegetable growers who brought in some of their harvest to Cathedral's pantry: Dr. Tim Curry, Bill and Gisele McGaughy, Steve and Norma Conant, Kris and Jeff Daise, Dustin Carpenter, Chris and Bob Den Ouden, and many others who have donated items for those in need. Everything is so appreciated. God bless you.
