Prayers and Sympathy to the family and friends of Diane McIntosh, one of our cafeteria workers and sister-in-law of our cafeteria director, Patty McIntosh. Please pray for Diane and her family.

We will not have Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament on this coming Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, but will have it on Thursday 9 am-1:00 pm and Friday, 9 am to 3 pm. Please sign up at <http://signup.com/go/yeSjCoj>, on the paper form in the daily chapel, by emailing Sara King at adoration@cathedralsj.org, or contacting the Parish Office.

The Divine Mercy Novena continues through next Saturday, April 15th. Next Sunday, April 16th, will be Divine Mercy Sunday. All are invited to Holy Hour from 3-4 PM.

Cathedral is once again sending a group of middle school students to Camp Savio to grow in faith, friendship, and fun! Camp Savio is run by the KCSJ diocese, and is a beautiful way for the children to develop their relationship with God. The cost per child and each chaperone is approximately $450, and we are collecting donations through the month of April to help offset the cost. Please consider sponsoring a camper in any amount so that finances will not be a barrier to this opportunity. If you would like to make a donation, please put it in an envelope marked "Camp Savio", place it in the regular collection basket at Mass, or mail/drop it by the Parish Office sometime this month. Thank you for investing in the future of our children!

Father Hansen's message . . .

Happy Easter!!!!!!! The Lord has risen!!!! I write this as I listen to Pope Francis preaching live in Rome for the Holy Thursday Chrism Mass. He's speaking of the Holy Spirit dissipating the fear of the Apostles, and that they no longer sought places of honor, nor thought about themselves so much...

Priests do receive an initial Anointing at Ordination, but they, I, have failed to always rely on that and disappointments have at time set in... I ask your forgiveness for the times you've, so to speak, paid the price for that because of me. However, today we celebrate Easter, the resurrection. The moment that all the words of Jesus took on new meaning. Why? He was/is God! He rose from the dead as he promised!

Pope Francis' mention of three temptations that can set in if we don't have recourse to the Holy Spirit and God's Mercy (Deacon Josh will write about this next week, maybe, as he writes for Divine Mercy Sunday): compromise, surrogate, & discouragement. When we feel discouraged, let's pray more, and consult, and not compromise on the call to holiness and call to apostolate we all have. Let's not substitute other things for the work at hand, the souls that need to know of the Mercy of God, and the Love of God poured out for us, especially in the Eucharist. Finally, let's ask the Holy Spirit to halt discouragement, and bring life back to our souls, sincerely trying to fulfill the desires of the Father. As we've seen the Son, we've seen the Father, and can know his will. The Holy Spirit, and his spouse, Mary, will help us, along with St. Joseph, the amazing patron of our city!

Happy Easter!
