"You are the light of the world." (Matthew 5:14) This is World Marriage Day, a special day we honor couples who shine Christ's love through their union. Holy matrimony is a vocation of light, illuminating the world with faith and fidelity. Renew your commitment with your spouse in prayer.

Last weekend was "Called by Name" Sunday. It's not too late to nominate someone you may know and believe has a calling to the priesthood or religious life. There are slips of colored paper in the pews to nominate a person, 16 years of age or older, and place it in one of the baskets at the exits of church, use the code on the paper to nominate someone electronically, bring the paper back to church next weekend, or drop it by the Parish Office. Remember that God calls but sometimes He uses our voices. If you have questions, contact the Parish Office.

This weekend, our second collection is for the Msgr. Nowland/Cathedral School Endowment Fund. This endowment has continued to grow over the past 30+ years due to many kind and generous donations by parishioners and other individuals. Thank you!

Ladies, don't forget to place your green "Altar Society Dues" envelope and $10 payment in the collection basket next weekend, Feb. 14th-15th, with the regular collection envelopes. You may also use an envelope of your own or one that is available in the pew and mark it "Altar Society Dues." Don't forget to complete your name on the envelope and include an address/phone # if your contact information needs to be updated in our records.

Next weekend, Feb. 14th-15th, we will have a special collection to help our Carpenter's Square Youth in their efforts to raise funds to attend Camp Savio in June. Please see the testimonies from our youth in this weekend's bulletin.

Men: Please join us on Sat., March 28th for the annual Cathedral Men's Retreat. It begins on Saturday in Ruggle Hall at 7:30 AM, and continues on Sun., March 29th, concluding with the 11:30 AM Mass. This retreat is a fantastic opportunity to meet other men in our community and grow closer to Christ. Have questions or reserve your spot? Contact Tom Roetto, 816-262-8706, Joe Wise, 636-628-7160, or Cathedral of St Joseph Men's Retreat Registration Link

A Message from Deacon Joshua Fultz

"If you bestow your bread on the hungry and satisfy the afflicted, then light shall rise for you in the darkness." Isaiah 58:7-10

Who would have known that taking out the trash and spending hours playing Kings in the Corner and other card games would give me a place to heal—and eventually lead to a life called to service? I certainly didn't. I was only eight years old and thought I was just earning money for toys. Mrs. Hagen was old, and so were her heavy metal trash cans, but I could lift them for four dollars a week. What began as a chore slowly became time spent with one of the greatest influencers in my life.

Things were rough at home around that time. My little sister had just passed away from undetected cancer. We were all hurting. My parents had lost a child and were struggling to hold themselves together, and I felt lost in the whole mess. I knew what death was—my parents had taken me to funerals—but this was different. This was in my home.

Mrs. Hagen became a place of refuge—a quiet space where I could find peace and begin to heal. My service was repaid not in toy money, but in something far greater: healing that came through God's love, shown to me by a caring neighbor.

My story is not unique. Many of us come to church carrying wounds that no one sees. Isaiah does not ignore that pain—but neither does he allow us to hide within it. He tells us plainly that healing does not come from turning inward or retreating from the world. It comes through mercy. When we step outside ourselves to serve the hungry, the afflicted, and the forgotten, God does something unexpected: as we pour ourselves out, light rises where there was darkness, and God says, "Here I am."

Isaiah's words confront us, especially in a culture that encourages us to focus first on ourselves—to protect our time, guard our energy, and seek healing apart from others. Isaiah offers no such comfort. He insists that light does not rise in isolation. It rises when bread is shared, burdens are lifted, and love is given away. He is not calling us to be busier Christians, but truer ones—men and women willing to loosen our grip on ourselves and trust that God's way leads not to loss, but to life.

The question Isaiah leaves us with is not whether we are religious, or even sincere. It is whether we are willing to live as a gift. For it is there—only there—that light breaks forth, wounds begin to heal, and the Lord answers, "Here I am."
