As things are opening up, people are vaccinated, and we are returning to church, it's time to re-activate the Altar Society. This is for women of all ages wanting to support and help with church activities and functions. The officers last elected have either moved away or are no longer able to fulfill the duties of their positions. During the past year of the pandemic, there were no meetings, no activities, no functions. Now it is time to refresh the St. Anne's Altar Society. Please consider how you, active women in the Cathedral of St. Joseph parish, can bring your talents and skills to participate as we begin anew. New officers, new ideas, new plans will be in the future. The first organizational meeting will be in late summer. Please watch the bulletin for details. Margaret Redmond (Co-President)

Don't forget to order Cathedral Cash cards during the summer to use for your vacations and special celebrations in addition to groceries, gas, and everyday household and personal expenses. We would like to have Cathedral Cash cards available for sale after the weekend Masses. However, we need volunteers to make this happen. If you can help after any of the 4 pm, 8:30 am or 11:30 am Masses, please contact Melanie Francis at cathedralcash@cathedralsj.org or 816-351-8870.

"I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me." (Ps 30)

Father Leete's message . . .

This month we celebrated the feast day of Saint Boniface, known as the Apostle of the Germans because of the work he did to convert those people to the true Faith. Born in the 7th century in England, he left that country to do missionary work in what is present day Germany. The people there had suffered under apathetic priests and bishops and as a result the faith was lukewarm at best and in many cases had lapsed back into paganism. He labored many years and brought countless souls back to the Church. At the age of 73, while preparing to confirm some of his flock, he and his 52 companions were attacked and murdered by a band of pagans.

To the end of his life, Boniface displayed courage. He preached the truth fearlessly. He fought against the world, the flesh and the devil, never allowing a fear of any of those things to silence him.

And how do we react when we are threatened by the rich and powerful? When they threaten our source of funds or our comfortable lifestyle, do we stand for the truth or do we cower and grovel before them? Is truth more important to us or is money? Our response should be the same as St. Peter: "Let your money perish with you!" (Acts 8:20)

We should imitate St. Boniface and all the martyrs throughout Church history who went to their deaths loudly proclaiming the truth to a world that can't stomach the truth, a world that doesn't consider the truth to be "pastoral." Pastoral is simply another word for cowardice, a craven fear of challenging the rich and powerful. Don't be a coward. Stand with the martyrs.

Let us be neither dogs that do not bark nor silent onlookers nor paid servants who run away before the wolf. Instead let us be careful shepherds watching over Christ's flock. Let us preach the whole of God's plan to the powerful and to the humble, to rich and to poor, to men of every rank and age, as far as God gives us the strength, in season and out of season. ~St. Boniface

Dynamic Parish Summer Reading

There are 10 amazing books on our Summer Book List. We now have a few copies of each of the 10 books on our Summer Reading List available for loan. These will become a permanent part of our new Cathedral Lending Library.

Do you have a favorite book that you would like to share? We invite you to donate a copy to our new parish lending library. Place new or gently used adult or children's books in the crate located by the summer reading program table. We hope to be able to develop a well-stocked lending library in the future.

We now have children's books in our lending library in the west vestibule. Check out one to take home, or "borrow" one for your child during Mass or Adoration. Simply return to the box when you leave.
