May Xavier Schmidt be blessed as he is ordained this Saturday as a transitional deacon. Please keep him in your prayers as he continues his preparation for the priesthood.

“Receive the Holy Spirit.” (John 20:22) On the day of His resurrection, Jesus breathed the Holy Spirit into His disciples, empowering them to continue His mission of love, truth, and service. In priesthood, consecrated life, and holy matrimony, the Holy Spirit strengthens hearts to answer God’s call courageously, guiding, inspiring, and sanctifying their work in the world. Pray for an outpouring of the Spirit, that more men and women may be filled with His grace and step boldly into their vocations.

This Monday’s Mass will be at 8:30 am as usual. It also supports his numerous charitable works in aid of people and families in difficulty, populations afflicted by natural disasters and wars, or who are in need of humanitarian assistance or support for development. Thank you for your consideration.

Message from Fr. Benjamin Fenlon

School is over, vacations are here, and once again comes that yearly reminder: God does not cease to exist because of it. Please, please! We must remember that, unless there is a legitimate reason, to miss Mass would be a mortal sin. The problem is not the vacation, nor is it the school year. The problem is within our hearts.

We tend to place so, so much importance on our emotional states and our feelings, which fluctuate backwards and forwards. And so we too fluctuate... This week I want to exhort you to constancy: a virtue that is fundamental for any semblance of a normal life.

We live in a crazy world in case you hadn't noticed. The greatest act of rebellion, uprising and revolution that you can live out in a crazy world is to embrace an objectively normal life.

In this beloved town of St. Joseph, we have the blessing of six active parishes, all thriving. Yet with familiarity comes a great temptation: entitlement. How often are we tempted to parish-hop when we hear of a new priest assignment? 'I don't like the way that priest says Mass, I'm moving across town to this other Church'.

But what if that priest, that Church, need you to remain constant, so that they can correct the course?

Constancy is a virtue to strive for, and to flourish in. It was constancy that made Rome capital of the world, that built the medieval Cathedrals, and that will help you, too, weather the emotional storms that you go through, without letting the spiritual edifice you are constructing topple.
