National Vocation Awareness Week starts November 2nd

"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven." (Matthew 5:3) The saints show us that true joy and freedom come from placing God above all else. Their lives remind us that holiness often begins in simplicity and humility, responding generously to God's call. During National Vocations Awareness Week, let us pray for more men and women to courageously follow Him, discerning a life as a priest, religious brother or sister, or through holy matrimony. Could God be inviting you to join in this holy witness? Talk to a priest or reach out to the Vocation Office at 800-246-1850, ext.273, or kcpriest.org.

During the construction phase of the Baldacchino installation, our 4 pm and 10 am weekend Masses will continue to be held in our Cathedral Church. Our daily Masses on Mon., Tues., Thurs., and Fri. will be in the west vestibule. Mass on Wed. evenings and Sat. mornings will be in Church or in the west vestibule. Confessions before daily Masses will be available in Church. Our All School Masses will be in the gym (Confessions available in the vestibule of the gym). Sign up on the paper form now located in the west vestibule (on the countertop, right inside the glass doors) or use this link: https://signup.com/go/tAELctv. Please check "This Coming Week's Activities" in this church bulletin for updates.

This Wednesday, the Men's Bible Study will be 6:30-8:00 pm in the Msgr. Dierkes Meeting Room (in the Rectory).

If you have not done so, there's still time to give to the ACA through a one-time gift or pledge. No financial gift is too small, but everyone is encouraged to participate. Father Nguyen's Message

The huge multitude of saints—the ranks of martyrs, apostles, confessors, virgins, and holy souls who were considered by God to be instantly deserving of entry into heavenly glory upon their earthly death—are honored on November 1st, All Saints Day.

We offer special prayers on November 2, All Souls' Day, for the faithful dead who died in friendship with Christ but were judged by God to still require some purification before entering heaven. These souls were sent to the spiritual hospital known as Purgatory by God rather than going straight to heaven.

Throughout Christian history, people have consistently prayed for the deceased. The saints also exhort us to offer prayers for the deceased. Saint John Vianney stated, "We must say many prayers for the souls of the faithful departed, for one must be so pure to enter heaven." More than 1200 years before St. John Vianney, St. John Chrysostom advised every Christian household to keep a box in a handy location in their home where they may save extra money for Masses for the Poor Souls. Praying for the deceased has a scriptural foundation. In II Maccabees, Judas leads his warriors in prayer for their fallen colleagues' sins to be pardoned (II Macc 12:39–45). In II Timothy, St. Paul prays for the dead Christian Onesiphorus.

Purgatory is real, according to the Bible, the witness of the saints, and ongoing Christian practice. After we pass away, many, if not most of us, will need to be cleansed of the remnants of sin and selfishness to enter the location in Heaven that is ready for us. Three things are known, even if the Church has not definitively said what this purification is like or how long it takes: there is a cleansing after death, and it is not completely pleasant. It requires suffering, but with our prayers, the church on earth can help the souls in Purgatory.

Pray for the deceased every day in November. Before going to bed and after meals, think about saying the customary prayer for the deceased: "Grant them eternal rest, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. May their souls, and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace." Remember the names of as many of your departed loved ones as you can and give them to the Father when you attend Mass.

May we be generous in our prayers and actions of kindness toward our dear deceased, that with them, we may come to see God face to face in heaven.

Bishop Johnston asks the Christian faithful to turn out to vote YES on Amendment 3. If passed, this favorable constitutional amendment will reverse the radical abortion language in the Missouri constitution, limit the legal reasons for allowing abortions and the timeframe for when they can be performed, allow state regulation of abortion providers, and require parental consent for minors to get abortions. In addition, it will make the current restrictions on puberty blockers and cross-sex hormones for minors, which is scheduled to expire in August 2027, a permanent part of the state constitution.

This Tuesday, November 3rd, the Altar Society invites all ladies to their business meeting at 6 pm in St. Anne's Room. The upcoming activities/fundraisers will be discussed. Hope you can come!

Great prizes for each round of Bingo. All proceeds going towards their ground projects.

We need your help! Are you (or a family member) in need of service hours or, if not, would you be willing to just help your parish on any of the afternoons/evenings of Nov. 4, 5, or 6, or morning/afternoon of Nov. 7 (see hours below)? We need someone at the check-in table outside St. Anne's Room during the hours when the directory photos are being taken. We are hoping for volunteers to cover some of the time, so the parish office staff ladies won't need to cover the entire time themselves.

It's not too late to schedule your Cathedral Directory photo. If you are photographed by Universal Church Directories, you will receive a complimentary 8 x 10 portrait and a directory! Poinsettia Fundraiser

Bring Christmas Home • Honor Someone Special • Support Cathedral Students

For several years, Cathedral School families have sold poinsettias as both a service project for Cathedral Parish and a fundraiser benefiting the Children's Fund. Proceeds help ensure that all students have the opportunity to participate in study trips and other special activities.

As the Christmas season approaches, we invite our school and parish families to take part in this beautiful Cathedral tradition!

Poinsettias for Your Home

Purchase a beautiful poinsettia for your home, office, family member, or friend!

Poinsettias will be available for pickup on Tuesday, November 24, in the afternoon on the ramp or at dismissal, giving you plenty of time to enjoy them throughout the Christmas season.

Memorial Poinsettias

You may also purchase a Memorial Poinsettia in honor or in memory of someone special.

Memorial poinsettias will be delivered to Cathedral Church and used to decorate the church for the Christmas season. Each year, the poinsettias help transform the Cathedral into a beautiful and joyful setting for our Christmas celebrations. Seeing the church filled with these flowers is truly a special sight and a meaningful part of Christmas at Cathedral.

Purchasing a memorial poinsettia is a wonderful way to remember or honor someone special while helping beautify our church for Christmas.
