A Message from Mother Maria Stella

Dear Cathedral and St. Mary's parishioners,

I recently attended a conference in St. Petersburg, Russia, on Pope Francis's official promulgation of the holy year, "Spes non confundit - Bull of Indiction of the Ordinary Jubilee of the Year 2025 (9 May 2024)" (Hope does not disappoint). What a gift we have been given to have the Cathedral designated as one of the pilgrimage sites!

Did you know that you can obtain from the Lord a Jubilee plenary (full) indulgence every day through December 28 of this year? A plenary indulgence is the remission of all the temporal punishment due to sin, for yourself or for any deceased loved one or other poor soul in Purgatory. There are many ways to do this, since Cathedral is one of the pilgrim churches. Here is the Decree on the granting of the Indulgence during the Ordinary Jubilee Year 2025 called by His Holiness Pope Francis (13 May 2024). Not only can you receive an indulgence by making a pilgrimage to a site and attending Mass, receiving communion, going to confession within 21 days, and offering the Creed, Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory Be, but also from attending the liturgy of the hours at a Pilgrim site, or praying the rosary there, Stations of the Cross, or Eucharistic adoration and meditation ending with the Creed, Our Father and a prayer to Our Lady!

This is also a year for more frequent acts of charity, such as visiting the sick, the lonely, or the homebound, which is "in a sense making a pilgrimage to Christ present in them," so you can obtain a plenary indulgence that way, too!

The sick and homebound can also obtain the Indulgence by praying the Our Father, Creed, and a prayer to our Lady, going to confession and receiving communion while uniting themselves spiritually to a pilgrimage, including praying while listening to the diocesan Bishop or Holy Father in Rome via some form of media.

The decree mentions that rediscovering the penitential nature of Friday can also count—such as abstaining from meat and/or fasting, or abstaining from media and/or social networks on Fridays, defending life on that day (for ex, Forty Days for Life), or helping migrants.

Let us be pilgrims of hope for the rest of this year, trusting in Jesus, who loves us so much.

If you are volunteering to help with any Cathedral activities/events where there will be children (such as Hill Day, St. Joseph's Day Dinner/Table, chaperoning at field trips, coaching, helping in classrooms, etc.) please know that you are required to attend the Virtus (Protecting God's Children) Training. This free session will be offered again, for your convenience, at Cathedral on this Monday, September 15th, 5:30-8:30 pm in Ruggle Hall (downstairs in church basement).
