Most Rev. James V. Johnston will be here at Cathedral on Friday, Oct. 18, at 6:00 PM to celebrate a White Mass in honor of those in the medical profession. The Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick will also be included in this event. All are invited to attend. The sacrament of healing is for people who have any serious or chronic illness of condition, or who are anticipating surgery.

We will take up a second collection next weekend, October 19-20, for World Mission Sunday. We are called through our baptism to be part of the Church's missionary efforts, through prayer, self-sacrifice and support of missionary vocations through material aid. Remembering that we are baptized and sent as a Universal Church of Christ on mission in the world, we can... PRAY for the Church's worldwide missionary work, OFFER financial HELP and CHARITY through The Society for the Propagation of the Faith for vulnerable communities throughout Asia, Africa, Latin America and the Pacific Islands.

This weekend is commitment weekend for the 2020 Annual Catholic Appeal, Blessing God's Family. Please consider a one-time gift/making a pledge to this upcoming year's campaign. Our goal is 100% participation. You can drop your card in the mail directly to the diocese or bring it with you to Mass. Let us work together with one heart and mind to accomplish the works God has chosen for us. You may watch Bishop Johnston's ACA video message to all parishioners on our website: www.cathedralsj.org.

Message from Father Hansen . . .

“Blessing God’s Family: Past...Present...Future...”

A couple of weeks ago I preached about the sharing of talents and sacrifice; the Gospel was about the rich young man. This weekend our Bishop will address us about sharing/sacrifice on behalf of the Diocese. We are one family, that reaches well beyond our parish. Our family reaches around the globe in the universal Church; the Catholic Church. As we watch the video and listen to our Bishop, let us please ask the Holy Spirit to guide our gift for the upcoming year. Could we increase a little (or a lot)?

A number of years ago I was at the blessing of a Shrine dedicated to the Holy Family. As the Archbishop was blessing the bronze statue of Jesus and Joseph coming back from the wood shop with a toy boat for Mary - just as the statues were blessed - a baby got sick. Surely, we all felt bad for the baby and the family, but Archbishop said, “now it’s really blessed.” Life isn’t perfect. Our families aren’t perfect. The Church’s members aren’t perfect. But God’s love for us is! May his love inspire us to support Bishop Johnston and the offices that count on us in this year’s Annual Catholic Appeal: Blessing God’s Family: Past...Present...Future...
