Father Hansen's message . . . Happy Easter!!!!

I always enjoy saying Happy Easter for the full eight days of the octave: what a joyful time!! I presume not too many of us will forget this Easter, when we couldn't go to church physically and greet people with those words face to face. You know, I'm sure, that you are presented to God - you and your joys, sorrows, work, and play - through the priest to the Father at every Mass, nonetheless, whether you're here or not. Yes, you'd rather be here, but our Faith tells us as the Body of Christ, we're all presented to the Father through the Son at every Mass. Maybe this Easter we'll take renewed comfort and solace on that fact!

Going back to the "octave"; a change that happened during my priestly formation (seminary) that has also been a great joy to me is the reality of what the Church has given on the 8th day of Easter, Divine Mercy Sunday. Jesus said this to St. Maria Faustina about this day (next Sunday):

I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy. The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. On that day all the divine floodgates through which grace flow are opened. Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet. Diary 699 [Note: confession does not have to be done on the Sunday itself. Beforehand is fine.]

Our faith doesn't leave us empty on Easter Sunday because we sin or have a problem. Our Lord, Jesus Christ, on the evening of that first Easter instituted the Sacrament of Confession (Penance). On the evening of the Easter Octave (the 8th day of it) we meditate on that. I present it here as a joyful thing to ponder this Easter Sunday. That the day our Lord rose from the dead he started a tradition so that we can experience Easter joy each and every time we go to Confession.

The best of Easters to you, your families, and your loved ones!

Cathedral Cash: Order virtual gift cards through ScripNow to use via the computer or your phone. Unfortunately, HyVee, Price Copper, and most local restaurants are not available for ScripNow purchase. To use ScripNow, you need to be set up on Presto Pay or a credit card. Each time you use Presto Pay, it costs 15 cents. Your cards will be available within minutes by going to "dashboard", then "my wallet".

Catholic Charities message: "Although this is definitely not how we typically celebrate the Resurrection, Catholic Charities KCSJ would like to take this opportunity to wish you all the blessings of the season. Please continue to pray for all of those who have been affected by the virus in any way and all those we serve in our outreach to the Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph. Spreading the love of Jesus Christ while meeting the needs of those less fortunate is the foundation of our efforts. Now, more than ever, they need our help. To become a part of the solution in our area, reducing poverty, homelessness and unemployment, contact Lynn Lichte, Donor Stewardship Specialist at lichte@ccharities.com or 816-659-8243.

Stewardship makes a difference...

A big thank you to Dr. Tim Curry for keeping the rectory front lawn and garden beautifully landscaped.

- Race for Education Fundraiser: If you haven't texted or emailed your friends and family to support your child in their RACE for education, please do so! The students are running to earn money for their exceptional faith-based education at Cathedral School. There are no mailers going out this year, so we are relying on you to help spread the word. While the physical race is canceled, we will still issue some sort of Healthy Living Challenge on Friday, April 24. This fundraiser helps support our annual operational expense, so the race must go on (figuratively, of course)! If you would like to donate, text RACE to 74121 and follow the instructions, or go online to qtego.net/race. Thank you for your support!

St. James School Annual Geranium Sale: Large selection of colors available in 6" pot. $5 each. Orders and money are due Friday, April 24. Plants to be picked up in the basement of St. James Church on Saturday, May 2, 10:00 AM-2:00 PM. To order, contact Elizabeth Marek at 816-351-1672.
