Needs identified by the Building/Grounds Committee

- Part-time maintenance person – The Committee, Fr. Hansen, and the Finance Committee are working to create position. In the meantime, if there is someone with construction/building maintenance related work experience that would like to volunteer to fill this position in an interim role, please contact Travis Unzicker or the Parish Office.
- Our school building has many projects that need to be completed over the summer and we are looking for a volunteer to help coordinate these projects. This person would work with the school staff to create a prioritized list of projects and the B & G Committee would support this person to find leaders and volunteers for each individual project.
- The B & G Committee is currently looking to get quotes on the lawn care for the entire campus. If you know someone who would like to quote on this, donate this service, or has lawn equipment that could be donated, please contact Craig Mattox or the Parish Office.
- There is a drain in the floor of Ruggie Hall that has a missing grate and needs to be repaired. If you have the time and talent to fix this, please contact Leroy Davis or the Parish Office.
- Our campus has several small leaks on some of our metal roofs that are needing local repairs/patches until we can secure funds to do a full replacement. If you have experience with this type of work and would like to help us with some repairs, contact Travis Unzicker.
- The porch on the South side of the Rectory needs to be removed. We need 2 storm security or exterior doors, an ornate wrought iron hand railing, demolition of the existing structure, and landscaping/lawn put back. Contact Travis Unzicker or the Parish Office if you would like to quote, donate, or volunteer toward this project.

Father Armentrout message . . . The Heartfelt Compassion and Mercy of our God

This Sunday, the Church commemorates the Merciful and Compassionate Love of our Saving God. Our Gospel this Sunday sheds great insight into the loving compassion of our God. However, before jumping straight into a few brief thoughts on the Mercy of God and its importance in our Christian Life, I would like to make reference to the prophecy of Zachariah at the beginning of St. Luke's Gospel. Zachariah promises that, through the prophetic inspiration of the Holy Spirit, there would be a day that would come through the tender compassion of our God in which a light would be given to our feet so that we might be guided to peace (Luke 1:67-79). This seems to be the great mission of our Lord - to shed light on humanity so that we might accept the salvific (justifying) grace of God. This would bring about the goal which He spoke of in St. Matthew's Gospel (Mt 15) - "I came to gather the lost sheep of Israel."

Here in these days following Easter, most especially today on Divine Mercy Sunday, we are called by the tender compassion of our God to receive his superabundant mercy. These words tender compassion come from an interesting Greek Word that denotes the 'heartfelt' or 'guttural' mercy of God. It's that interior feeling that one might get when they see a loved one suffering. God has that interior feeling of compassion for us. To restore us to his Mercy while we are caught in our own sinfulness, he sends his only begotten Son. Shortly after our Lord's resurrection and inspired by his tender compassion for his wayward disciples, our Lord goes out to start calling them back immediately. Today we hear of the mercy he shows Thomas in the upper room. Think also of the road to Emmaus, and Peter's contrition at the sea of Galilee. Jesus is calling his disciples to experience his peace.

A very moving thing that we can often forget as Catholics is the timing of our Lord's institution of the Sacraments. The first Sacrament that he establishes as his Easter gift to the Church is confession. Confession is the instrument God has given us to learn of peace. Jesus gives us this sacrament out of his tender compassion so that we might experience the peace he wills to give us from all of Eternity. It is my prayer for this parish (myself included) and for the Universal Church that we might never grow tired of receiving our Lord's merciful Love on a consistent basis as he offers this gift of peace to us, especially in the Sacraments. In the Sacred Heart of Jesus, Fr. Armentrout (For further reading of scripture passages mentioned in this article, see Luke 24, John 20, Luke 1, Matthew 15, John 3:16, and John 21).
