In the month of July, our Food Pantry served 510 households, which was made up of 1559 individuals (977 adults and 582 children). The volunteers worked a total of 250 hours (which includes the 90 minutes the Food Pantry is open per day, 3 days per week, and the time spent purchasing, transporting, loading/unloading, and stocking items. The Food Pantry recently set a new record of 60 households served in one day. That breaks down to one household served a cart of food every minute and a half! We thank our volunteers for their ongoing dedication and service to helping those in need. We also thank all our parishioners, other parishes, organizations, vendors, and friends of Cathedral who assist us, when they can, in helping the hungry. Any donation, large or small is greatly appreciated.

Message from Father Stephen Hansen . . .

I write on Thursday, August 4th (the Memorial of St. John Vianney) from New York City where I'm on a priests' workshop. Twenty-seven priests from around the United States (one from England) are together with classes in the morning and early evening. Sunday we'll have a quiet day through midafternoon. Each Thursday we have a day set aside for excursions. Today, three of us went to the 9-11 Museum.

I just got out of a get-together with the priests after dinner a few hours after the excursion ended. Someone asked how the 9-11 museum excursion went. I'll share the three most memorable things brought up by the three priests.

Fr. Will (from Arlington) said the room with the faces of all 2977 people who lost their lives was most touching. He reflected on how one was only five years old. Not in that room, but outside where all the names are listed, there are a number of names of the woman and "her unborn baby." Unborn, to five, to older... all races, ethnic backgrounds, religious.

Fr. Ryan (from Chicago) wrote of a "burly" man with his wife and two kids, was just balling (crying). That really touched Fr. Ryan.

I thought a big picture of Fr. Judge's body being carried by a fire fighter, police officer, and a stockbroker was most touching. Fr. Judge was a Franciscan priest who went into the Twin Towers to anoint and did not survive.

We'll see you all next weekend! Welcome back, Fr. Armentrout! Welcome back, school children!

Michelle Jones, our parishioner, has shared with us her idea of donating your magazines to our area nursing homes. She has started giving hers to the St. Joseph Chateau on 9th Street, and they are thrilled to receive them. If any parishioners would like to donate them to the Chateau, please drop them by the Parish Office, leave them by the Food Pantry baskets at the exits of the church, or you can drop them off at the Chateau at 811 N. 9th Street. They also would appreciate some daily newspapers. You might also consider contacting some nursing care facilities in other parts of the city (perhaps by your home or work) which may appreciate the donated magazines.

St. Patrick's 53rd Annual Mexican Fiesta celebration continues this Saturday, August 6, 5-11 pm. Enjoy traditional and new Mexican Food items and kids' activities at St. Patrick Church. At 8 pm, enjoy Rose Marie's Fiesta Mexicana Folkloric Dance Group.

Coram Deo, the Eucharistic-centered Catholic group in the St. Joseph area, is meeting on Thurs., August 11! Meet at Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish at 6:10 pm for prayer + food, followed by a bonfire at the Cobb home (join the Slack page or contact Ally for address)! All young adults (age 22-35) are invited to attend. For more information, contact Ally Gabler at allygabler@gmail.com.

Attending Missouri Western this fall? The Catholic Newman Center has a place for you! Located right across the street from the campus entrance, the Catholic Newman Center offers engaging events, the Sacraments, and authentic Catholic community to the students of MWSU. Welcome Week events take place Aug. 28-Sept. 1. Visit www.mowestcatholic.org or email Ally Gabler at mowestcatholics@diocesekcsj.org for more information.

Dioceses have been asked to host a Diocesan Eucharistic Congress to bring greater awareness to the True Presence of Christ in the Eucharist, through speaker presentations and catechesis. The In His Real Presence Eucharistic Congress is Sat., Sept. 10th at St. James Parish in Liberty. Register at <https://kcsjatholic.org/eucharistic-congress/registration/>.
