He bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. - Jn 20:5-7

Message from Father Hansen. . . Happy Easter! The Lord is risen! Alleluia!!

It is almost hard to imagine what the risen Lord gave us last year about this time. You all watched the Easter Masses from home. The Mass of the Last Supper, the reading of the Passion and Stations... all from home. This year, this year of St. Joseph, we gather again in the Cathedral (most of us). I will get my second vaccine shot on April 8th (Easter Thursday). If you have not had a chance, I would recommend watching Bishop Johnston in an interview with Dr. Patrick Herrick regarding ethical consideration with the Covid Vaccine. You can find the video on our Diocesan website or here: <https://vimeo.com/519533666>

The use of human means to give glory to God is probably one of the least accessed forms of prayer. St. Paul tells us to pray always. Making our work a prayer is not complicated – we do our work well and we offer it to God – but it is not easy. It takes time in meditation – time for God – first! In this case, it is the work of a Bishop and a family physician: Bishop Johnston and Dr. Herrick. You and I can offer even what seems to be the most ordinary things as sacrificial offerings to our Father, through the Son! And, that Son is risen. What St. Paul told the Colossians he could have told to those in St. Joseph: “Whatever you do, work at it with your whole being. Do it for the Lord rather than for men, since you know full well that you will receive an inheritance from him as your reward. Be slaves of Christ the Lord.”

Maybe a consideration for this Easter, coming out of the year of pandemic, let us pray every day - stopping before the tabernacle or in Adoration if possible – and let us be conscious that our Lord was everything resurrected, offered to the Father, bringing the reign of Christ to all the nooks and crannies of St. Joseph!

Happy Easter!

P.S. Remember to sign up for the Dr. Scott Hahn talks on Easter Saturday, April 10th, at: <https://stpaulcenter.com/stjoseph/>

Please pick up a gift copy of “Do Something Beautiful for God”: available in the West Vestibule. This book is a collection of 365 daily reflections from Mother Teresa, published by Dynamic Catholic.

Custodial openings: Cathedral needs an additional full-time Custodian or part-time Custodians to clean in the afternoons and evenings in our School and St. Gianna’s ECC. Apply: <https://recruiting.paylocity.com/recruiting/jobs/Details/495173/Available-Positions/Custodian-Helper---Cathedral-of-St-Joseph>

Our Food Pantry needs 14-16 oz. small empty containers (such as whipped topping, cottage cheese, and dip cartons). They also use clean grocery bags and small water bottles. Unfortunately, yogurt cartons are too small to use for the laundry detergent given to the patrons. Also, the Food Pantry currently does not have a need for empty egg cartons. Your ongoing support and thoughtful generosity are GREATLY appreciated!

Coram Deo, the Catholic group for young adults (ages 22-35) in the St. Joseph area, will meet on Thursday, April 8 at Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish for prayer and food, followed by drinks at The Angry Swede Brewery! Questions? Contact Ally Goetz at goetz.ally@gmail.com.
