A message from Deacon Joshua Fultz –

“Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful.” — Luke 6:36

I don't know about you, but that scripture passage hits me like a knife to the heart every time I hear it. Being merciful is not in my nature. I was raised to be a war bringer with a tongue sharper than any sword, ready to lash out and strike at a moment's notice.

Mercy is hard. It's not in my nature. It calls me to be everything I am not. Mercy demands that I put away my destructive desires to tear people down and instead nurture a desire the good for everyone, including my enemies. The people who have hurt me or my family. The people who don't like me.

“You will be children of the Most High, for he himself is kind to the ungrateful and the wicked.” — Luke 6:35

It's rough when the light bulb goes on and you realize the “ungrateful and the wicked” are you and me. How much mercy does God show us every day? The mere fact that Mandy hasn't smothered me in my sleep —yet— has to be a part of that mercy. I can't begin to count the ways I have sinned and turned away from God's mercy and love. The picture gets worse when I think of the many times, I deliberately refused to show mercy not only to my enemies, but to anyone around me.

Showing mercy requires us to set aside our own selfish and prideful inclinations. St. Augustine stressed that “loving your enemies” is not just an emotional sentiment but a moral obligation to actively seek the good of others, even those who might have harmed you, mirroring God's universal love. This is not easy. As Mother Angelica puts it, “It's hard to pray for someone you wish would slip on a banana peel.” This call to love our enemies is not just an outward action but it requires an inner transformation that cultivates a type of compassion that allows us to see everyone as children of God.

So how do we do this? First, we should pray and ask for God to show us the places where he has shown us mercy in our own sinful lives. Next, we must begin to pray for others, even if it is half-hearted. Many times, I have said, “Lord I put this person in your hands, because if they were in mine, I'd be choking them.” It's not a bad thing to admit we are weak. When we admit our weaknesses, we open ourselves up for God to begin to work on our hearts and help us to truly desire mercy for everyone.

Lastly, we need realize this is an ongoing process that takes time. When we have truly been hurt, especially in severe or traumatic ways, granting mercy can be painful, bringing us back to those dark moments in our lives. It's OK. God brings us to these places so he can help to heal them. We won't forget the pain, but gradually, through God's mercy, we come to a place where we can unite our pain with Christ's pain on the cross and begin to grant mercy, and possibly even forgiveness.

THE ORDINARY JUBILEE OF 2025: PILGRIMS OF HOPE

What's an Ordinary Jubilee Year?

The Year of Jubilee is a biblical concept (see Leviticus 25:8-55) deeply rooted in Scripture and Tradition. In the Catholic Church, Jubilee years traditionally occur every twenty-five years. These are known as Ordinary Jubilees and are times of special grace, forgiveness, celebration, and renewal. The last Ordinary Jubilee was in the year 2000, which marked the two-thousandth anniversary of Christ's birth. Now, in 2025, we celebrate the Jubilee theme Pilgrims of Hope. It will conclude on January 6, 2026.

How can I receive a Plenary Indulgence at the Cathedral of St. Joseph?

By meeting all of these conditions:

1. Sacramentally confess all sins (20 days before or after indulgenced act, can apply to more than one indulgence)
2. Receive the Holy Eucharist
3. Pray for the intentions of the Supreme Pontiff (usually by an Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory Be)
4. Have the interior disposition of total detachment from sin, even venial sin
5. Do one of the following acts:
 - a. In the Cathedral of St. Joseph, participate in the Holy Mass, or a public devotional prayer like the Stations of the Cross, rosary, etc.
 - b. Spend some time in adoration in front of the Tabernacle or the Monstrance, concluding with an Our Father, the Nicene or Apostles' Creed, and an invocation to the Blessed Mother (e.g., a Hail Mary).
 - c. For more, see "Additional Acts to receive a Plenary Indulgence" on the opposite side.

What's a Plenary Indulgence?

The Church offers special indulgences, which are remissions of the temporal punishment of already forgiven sins, not a "get out of jail free card" for future sins. Remitting that punishment—or aftereffects of forgiven sin—includes purifying us of our "unhealthy attachment to creatures" and other created things (CCC 1472). Indulgences are outlined in the Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC 1471-1479). They are either partial or plenary, remitting some (partial) or the complete (plenary) temporal punishment due to one's sins, including, again, that associated with our unhealthy attachments to ourselves, other persons, and things—attachments which necessarily cannot exist in heaven (see Rev. 21:27). Indulgences can be obtained for oneself or for one who has died (the faithful departed).

How often can I receive a Plenary Indulgence?

One can receive a plenary indulgence every day so long as all the above conditions are met. This indulgence can be applied to oneself or for the dead.

What is the Cathedral of St. Joseph's role in all this?

The Cathedral of St. Joseph has been designated as a local Jubilee site by Bishop Johnston.

What does Blessed Carlo Acutis have to do with this Jubilee year?

On April 27, 2025, within this Jubilee year, Carlo Acutis will be canonized as a saint by Pope Francis. A first-class relic of Bl. Carlo Acutis is displayed for public veneration near the Western doors of the Cathedral of St. Joseph. May he intercede on our behalf during this year so that we might have the same persevering hope that led him to readily serve the Church as he best knew how.

Additional Acts to receive a Plenary Indulgence:

- Pilgrimage (participate in a liturgy) or pious visit (spend time in prayer) to:
 - a designated Jubilee site (found at usccb.org/jubilee2025)
 - the Holy Land
 - the Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph: the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in KC, or the Basilica of the Immaculate Conception in Conception
- Visiting and spending time with those in need (the sick, prisoners, lonely elderly people, disabled people)
- Abstaining for a day from futile distractions (media and/or social networks), or superfluous consumption/fasting
- Donating a proportionate sum of money to the poor
- Supporting works of a religious or social nature, especially in defense of life at all stages
- dedicating a proportionate amount of one's free time to volunteer service to the community

What if I'm sick?

Those who are unable to take part in pilgrimages or pious visits for serious reasons, such as cloistered religious, the elderly, the sick and those who care for them, or the imprisoned, may obtain the indulgence by uniting themselves in spirit with those making pilgrimages or pious visits, reciting an Our Father, a Profession of Faith, and other prayers in harmony with the purpose of the Jubilee year, and offering up their sufferings and hardships to the Lord.
