Message from Father Stephen Hansen

It's hard to believe that a week from this Wednesday we'll begin Lent! Of course, at the end of Lent we have Holy Week, including the Triduum, and then Easter Sunday!!!! On Easter Sunday I'll conclude my administrative responsibilities at Our Lady of Guadalupe. It was a joy to read to the parishioners at Our Lady of Guadalupe last weekend the following:

*Dear faithful parishioners of Our Lady of Guadalupe,
Thank you for your prayers and support during my time away from the parish. My time away has been a time of healing and renewal. With the support of Bishop Johnston, I plan to return as pastor at the outset of the Easter season, on April 1, 2024. Please keep me in prayer and know of my prayers for you.*

*In Christ,
Fr. Christian*

Fr. Armentrout read this at the 11am Mass and I did at the other two Masses. At all three Masses there was wonderful applause. It was a great tribute to Fr. Christian's pastoral care! I want to thank the staff at all three parishes for working together and for their understanding these last months. I am very proud of them. I also want to thank the parishioners at all three parishes for your kindness and for your understanding during this out-of-the-ordinary time! I've learned things on this journey, including from the great pastoral work that Fr. Christian Malewski left for me to watch over during his time away. You've no doubt learned things, too, and I'm sure you're thankful for that! Thank you, Father Christian. I want to thank the priests and Deacon Josh for their selfless help, too, as well as Carol Anne Hoppins from the Diocese!

Have a great last week of Ordinary Time before Lent and have a great Lent!!!

SJCA is proud to have a group of campers returning to the Kansas City-St Joseph Diocese's Camp Savio for the fourth year!

What is it?: Camp Savio is a Catholic youth camp for children who have completed 5th-8th grades. It is a week of fun, fellowship, personal development, and memory making. The kids have an opportunity to do daily mass and to go water skiing, and plenty of activities in between!

Where is it?: Camp Savio will be held at Conception Abbey this year

When is it?: June 10-15, 2024
