We need adorers to sign up for Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. This week, it will be held Monday through Thursday. There will be no classes on Friday, Feb. 16th or Monday, Feb. 19th, so we will not have Adoration on those days. The hours for Adoration are listed on the Activities calendar on this page. Please check your own calendar and sign up online at <https://signup.com/go/LPVzjYN> or on the paper sheet on the small table in our daily chapel. If you have questions or need assistance in signing up for or canceling your scheduled time, please contact adoration@cathedralsj.org or the Parish Office, 816-232-7763.

Our second collection this weekend is for the Monsignor Nowland/Catholic School Endowment. This endowment has continued to grow over the past 30+ years due to the many kind and generous donations of parishioners and other individuals. Cathedral School thanks you for your support.

Next weekend, February 17-18, our second collection will be for the Catholic Charities Emergency Assistance Fund (CCEAF). All funds raised remain within Catholic Charities' 27-county service area and serve to enhance and support a range of services for the most vulnerable members of our community.

Your support is still needed for the Annual Catholic Appeal as we are still at only 81% of our goal. Countless lives are touched by every contribution. Children, seminary students, the sick and aged, the needy—they all depend on our generosity. Your gifts support over 30 ministries along with administrative support for both parishes and the Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph. If you have not made your gift, you can go online at www.kcsjatholic.org to find information or make your gift, mail it directly to the Diocese, or place it in the collection basket at church and our parish office will mail it to the diocese for you. Thank you for your support!

Message from Deacon Joshua Fultz:

"If you wish, you can make me clean." – Mark 1:40

After joining the Church in 2005, one of the first ministries I worked with was the cold weather shelter inside the food kitchen in downtown St. Joe. Spending time with these men and hearing their stories was very eye opening for me. Every story was different, but each one shared a common theme of spiritual brokenness and shame.

In more recent years I have found myself working in ministries focused on spiritual healing. As it turns out, it's not just the homeless that suffer from this spiritual brokenness and shame. Many of us are carrying around wounds that are invisible to the naked eye and we do our best to make sure they stay that way. We swallow our pain and force it down into dark places we don't want to go, but that's not what God wants for us. He wants to heal us. He wants to make us clean. He wants to uncover those wounds and bring them into the light of his healing love.

This is why he gives us the sacraments of healing in anointing of the sick and reconciliation. Many times, I get asked by Catholics who have fallen away from the Church what it will take for them to come home. I always tell them that for the most part it's really easy. You just have to go to confession, admit your sins, and receive Christ's healing. Now, I know there can be other circumstances that need to be taken care of as well, but the Church in her wisdom has also given us clear teachings on how to bring everyone home, because she knows the will of the Father. The Church knows that God wants to heal each of us, just as we see Jesus heal the leper in this week's gospel passage.

If you or someone you love is lost and broken, please do not lose hope. You are the beloved sons and daughters of a loving father. Come receive his healing touch.

Next Saturday and Sunday, Feb. 17-18, the Men's Welcome Retreat will be using Ruggle Hall and St. Anne's Room. Therefore, after Sunday's 8:30 am Mass, we will have Coffee, Milk, and Donuts in the West Vestibule instead of in Ruggle Hall.

As a reminder, the following information from the USCCB includes fasting and abstinence requirements for Catholics.

"Ash Wednesday (February 14th) and Good Friday (March 29th) are obligatory days of fasting and abstinence for Catholics. In addition, Fridays during Lent are obligatory days of abstinence.

For members of the Catholic Church, the norms on fasting are obligatory from age 18 until age 59. When fasting, a person is permitted to eat one full meal, as well as two smaller meals that together are not equal to a full meal. The norms concerning abstinence from meat are binding upon members of the Catholic Church from age 14 onwards.

If possible, the fast on Good Friday is continued until the Easter Vigil (on Holy Saturday night) as the "paschal fast" to honor the suffering and death of the Lord Jesus and to prepare ourselves to share more fully and to celebrate more readily his Resurrection."

Booklets with a full Lenten schedule for all St. Joseph area churches are available. Please take one for information on other Lenten events. Many thanks to Allison Stewart of Our Lady of Guadalupe for putting the booklet together.
