Lord, your love is eternal; do not forsake the work of your hands. (Ps 138)

Father Leete's message . . . Since I was on vacation last weekend, I thought I would share with you my reflection on last Sunday's Gospel.

"It is not right to take the food of the children and throw it to the dogs." The words of Our Lord from the gospel of St. Matthew.

This was the second rebuke that Our Lord offered to the Canaanite woman, the first being when he ignored her plea altogether. He did this to increase her faith, hope and humility. He calls her a dog because he came first of all to the Jews. Ultimately, he came to save all of humanity, but he first wanted to preach the Gospel to the Jews, as they were the chosen people.

Nevertheless, by her persistence the Canaanite woman obtained what she desires; and she becomes an example to us. Our Lord often humbles us in our prayer; he delays answering or gives us a negative answer. Whether we receive what we ask for or are denied it, we should give thanks. For God knows what is good for us and therefore, even when our prayers are denied, it is a grace and a blessing.

We should learn to pray as the Canaanite woman, with humility, modesty, reverence, resignation and at the same time confidence; and with perseverance. If we acknowledge ourselves as nothing but vile dogs, that is, sinners, while at the same time never despairing of the mercy of our great God, we too will be rewarded not just with the scraps from Our Lord's table, but we will share in the great banquet in heaven.

Beginning August 31, the Parish Office will open early on Mondays for the convenience of school families and parishioners. Hours will be: Mon. 7:30 AM-2:00 PM; Tues. and Thurs. 9:00 AM-2:00 PM, Wed. and Fri. 9:00 AM-1:00 PM.

SCHOOL NEWS

Cathedral Cash . . . Order your cards now on a weekly basis through cathedralcash@cedralsj.org. Submit your order by 9:00 AM on Tuesdays, and those orders will be ready on Thursdays. Also, you can place your orders anytime at www.shopwithscrip.com and have e-cards within minutes. At this time, we do not have enough sellers to commit to selling cards at weekend Masses. We are looking to add Mass sellers to our team, so let me know if you are interested. It's a good way to earn service hours. For school families, the cards will be sent home in your students' back packs unless you have indicated otherwise. As a reminder, school families are to earn $100 in REBATES. Rebates range, on average, of 2% up to 15% depending on what you are purchasing. Once you earn $100, 50% of what you earn goes towards 2021-22 tuition. We already have families earning tuition credit!

We have a new phone system on campus. If anyone is interested in helping us sell the old phones on eBay and package them for shipping, please contact the Parish Office. We have been told we may get a few dollars for each phone.

It's that time!
