As a reminder, the general dispensation of our Sunday Mass obligation ended on June 1. All Catholics are called to return to in-person Mass and the Eucharist to remain in a state of grace. Bishop Johnston has extended a particular dispensation to anyone who continues to be in a vulnerable health situation as well as those who care for them. The Catechism of the Catholic Church also excuses anyone who is ill, caring for a very young infant, or is dispensed by their pastor.

Dynamic Parish Summer Reading: There are 10 amazing books on our Summer Book List. We now have a few copies of each of these books available for loan. These will become a permanent part of our Cathedral Lending Library.

Do you have a favorite book that you would like to share? We invite you to donate a copy to our new parish lending library. Place new or gently used adult or children's books in the crate located by the summer reading program table.

We now have children's books in our lending library in the west vestibule. Check out one to take home, or "borrow" one for your child during Mass or Adoration. Simply return to the box when you leave. Check out children's books for 1 week and adult books for 2 weeks. Children's coloring sheets will also be available on a weekly basis!

“Faithful Love and Loyalty join together, saving Justice and Peace embrace.” (Ps 85:10)

Father Hansen’s message . . .

It’s good to be home! I write this on Friday morning after Mass. I said to Pius in the sacristy, one week ago today I was heading back to the States (to see my family), and he was heading to Pompeii, near Naples. In Rome I felt at home with the universal Church. In Racine I felt at home with my siblings... but coming back to the parish(es) assigned to me is really home (at least for this life).

Cathedral and St. Mary’s have a new vicar (Fr. Armentrout) and new principal for the school (Catherine, Ms. Neumayr). What a joy it is to be called to be a priest, then to work with the family to see the priesthood come alive. You, too, can become more fully alive with new members of the family, assigned or new parishioners, because the local body of Christ has changed.

Last I wrote, I was looking at the Holy House of Loreto where Mary received the archangel Gabriel to announce Jesus’ coming (into her womb) and where she and Joseph raised Jesus. Let us see in our family, whether extended beyond our wall or within our walls, as an opportunity to become saints. Let us listen when we’re to listen, speak when we’re to speak, and always struggle to live in charity.

In family we also extend out generations, not just place. In two weeks, we’ll celebrate the first “Day for Grandparents and the Elderly”. On April 20th this year the Holy See made this proclamation: “Sunday 25 July will see the celebration of the First World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly. The theme chosen by the Holy Father for this World Day is “I am with you always” (cf. Mt 28:20) which is a way of expressing the closeness of the Lord and the Church to every older person, especially in these challenging pandemic times. “I am with you always” is also a promise of closeness and hope that young and old can mutually share. Not only are grandchildren and young people called upon to be present in the lives of older people, but older people and grandparents also have a mission of evangelization, proclamation and prayer, and of encouraging young people in their faith.”

It’s good to be home!

Coram Deo, the Catholic young adult group will meet on Monday, July 19th for *Mondays on the Bluff! Meet at Cathedral Parish at 6:10 PM for a walking Rosary to River Bluff Brewing! All young adults ages 22-35 are invited to attend. If you have questions, please contact Ally Goetz at goetz.ally@gmail.com.

Cost: Adults - $10; Children 10 & under - $5; Children 2 and under – free; cake and ice cream only – $3. Raffle: Cracker Barrel Rocking Chair; 3 cash prizes; and silent auction.

Knights of Columbus Council 571, 4520 Mitchell Ave., will host a blood drive Sat., July 31, 7:00 AM-1:00 PM. You can sign up online at savealifenow.org/group and use group code 00. Appointments are preferred - walk-ins are welcome if capacity permits. The need is critical, so please sign up to help if you can. Donors can go online and receive either a Royals t-shirt or cap. Thank you for your support.
