Message from Father Stephen Hansen . . .

I write this during the week we'll hit 10,000 confessions (currently at 9,994) made at Cathedral and St. Mary's since August 4th, 2018. We actually have fish counters in the confessionals, and I keep the totals on each counter in a spreadsheet.

In a 1981 letter on family life, Pope St. John Paul II wrote, "Family communion can only be preserved and perfected through a great spirit of sacrifice. It requires, in fact, a ready and generous openness of each and all to understanding, to forbearance, to pardon, to reconciliation. There is no family that does not know how selfishness, discord, tension, and conflict violently attack and at times mortally wound its own communion: hence there arise the many and varied forms of division in family life. But, at the same time, every family is called by the God of peace to have the joyous and renewing experience of "reconciliation," that is, communion reestablished, unity restored. In particular, participation in the sacrament of Reconciliation and in the banquet of the one Body of Christ offers to the Christian family the grace and the responsibility of overcoming every division and of moving towards the fullness of communion willed by God, responding in this way to the ardent desire of the Lord: "that they may be one." Reading those words when I was in medical school led me to think more seriously about being a priest (I was sensing the call). After I was ordained, I began offering half an hour of confessions before Masses (a little longer on Saturdays). I thought, how could I help families experiencing wounds in their communion if I'm not in the confessional (and my spiritual director recommended it). Then I heard that Pope St. John Paul II once said, "the sign of a healthy parish is the frequency with which the people go to confession."

I'm happy to be in the confessional, and so were Fr. Becker, Fr. Leete, and now Fr. Armentrout (as well as visiting priests). I thank them all for helping the parishes get to this milestone! I thank all of you for accepting the invitation to this sacrament and pray you'll continue and bring your friends, especially those suffering. On March 23rd of this year, Pope Francis said "If mercy is the mission of the church, we must facilitate the faithful's access to this 'encounter of love' as much as possible," in particular regards to the young and the sick. He encourages taking great care when preparing children for their first confession and especially when ministering to the sick and dying. "When not much more can be done to restore the body, "much can and always must be done for the health of the soul."

Please pray for me as I visit my siblings and their families on Sunday (July 16th). Please welcome Fr. Paul Sheller, OSB, as he covers the Masses this weekend, and preaches for the missionary appeal!

The St. Serra Apostolate for Vocations will be meeting on Wed., July 19th, following the 6 pm Mass at Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish. Fr. Al Ebach will be our speaker. All are invited to attend.

(Note – any donation in July with code "OO" will go to the Knights Blood Drive count.) The Community Blood Center serves over 70 regional hospitals and needs 500 donors per day. Please help them meet their goal.

May 1, 2023

Dear Friends in Christ,

Last year I wrote to you about the MO Scholars initiative that our state has opened to our Catholic Schools (diocesan, parochial, and private). As hoped, last year our Bright Futures Fund awarded 393 scholarships to students at 26 of our schools. The average household income of the students who received a scholarship was $42,000. As we look forward to next school year, the hope is to award over 800 scholarships. This is an enormous benefit to the students, their families, our schools as well as the whole community.

Recall that this program is funded by a tax credit model in which anyone who owes more than $1000 in annual Missouri state income tax can designate up to half of what they owe to Bright Futures Fund as an Education Assistance Organization (EAO) which distributes the scholarship to the child that meets the criteria. The State awards full credit to the participant on their taxes owed. The MO Scholars program does not reduce the amount of funding designated for public schools. Anyone who owes more than $1000 in annual state income tax is eligible to participate: individuals, S Corporations, and Corporations.

Last year we were able to raise $2.5 million in tax credits with the participation of many of you. Because of last year's success, we are anticipating even more demand this school year, and in the future, which is why we sought and were approved for $6 million in tax credits to fund this year's scholarships. Here's the main purpose of why I write to you this year: to ask you to participate. There is no cost to you; it is a simple process in which you just notify the state that you want half your taxes to go to Bright Futures Fund to help qualified families send their child to a Catholic school.

The process to participate is very easy and simple and can be accomplished in mere minutes. I am including a diagram to assist you.

Thank you!

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ James V. Johnston, Jr.

Most Reverend James V. Johnston, Jr., D.D., J.C.L.
Bishop of Kansas City-St. Joseph
