For this project, we are needing two storm security or exterior doors, an ornate wrought iron hand railing, demolition of the existing structure, and landscaping/lawn put back. Fr. Stephen Hansen

Let God's greatest evangelist, Mary, help lead you to the fullness of Truth - His Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity

Message from Father Stephen Hansen . . . Today we celebrate the 18th Sunday in Ordinary Time. In the summer months, and between Christmas Season and the beginning of Lent, Ordinary Time can be a time of imagining the thirty years of hidden “ordinary” life of Jesus - maybe his visiting his family as we often do on trips in the summer; maybe traveling on excursions to see nature or to support a distant relative or friend of Mary and Joseph; or maybe enjoying the demands of a good hike.

It can be in the “ordinary” times of our lives that Jesus can speak to us, call us, in extraordinary ways. Often times at Sunday Mass or when we’re spiritually reading our Bible or a spiritual book, or when meditating on something we’ve read, we feel dry. We can be tempted to give up. Even as we live, the routine of our work and daily schedule can seem, dare I say, pointless. We can want to give up. We try harder to put more love in our prayer and work. Do our work better. The same feeling happens. Then, when we least expect it, there is a light; God speaks to our heart. Reflecting on this, and the thirty years of Jesus’ life without his preaching or miracles, can push us on to know the dignity and nobility of ordinary life lived out of love for God.

Relating this to prayer in general, I’d like to share a quote of St. Josemaria Escriva, whose relic is in the back of the Cathedral: You have told me sometimes that you are like a clock out of order, which strikes at the wrong moment: you feel cold, dry and arid at the time of your prayer, and on the other hand, when it is least to be expected, in the street, in the midst of your daily activities, in the bustle and hubbub of the city, or in the concentrated calm of your professional work, you find yourself praying... At the wrong moment? Possibly; but don't waste those chimes of your clock. The Spirit breathes where he will. ~ The Way no. 110

Let’s enjoy these summer days, pray, and work too, and expect of the Lord to speak to us when we need it, as we need it, and with many surprises (as Pope Francis would say “God’s a God of surprises”).

Volunteers are needed to help clean the church on Friday, August 5, at 9 am. The more people we have to help, the more we can accomplish. This is a great way for parents and teens to earn service hours and also help your parish!

In these times of high prices, Cathedral’s Food Pantry continues to struggle with having enough items to feed the many patrons who are in need of food assistance. Any donations are greatly appreciated.

St. Patrick’s 53rd Annual Mexican Fiesta: Next Friday, Aug. 5th, 5-10 pm will be the Queen Coronation Dance at Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish. $5 for ages 10 & up. Music by DJ Gabe Sosa. On next Sat., Aug. 6th, 5-11 pm, enjoy traditional and new Mexican Food items and kids’ activities at St. Patrick Church. At 8 pm, enjoy Rose Marie’s Fiesta Mexicana Folkloric Dance Group.

Bishop LeBlond High School continues to assemble an excellent ensemble of faculty and staff for the coming 2022-23 school year. Post pandemic fallout is that there are NO math and science candidates emerging from our local colleges and universities. Despite LeBlond’s extensive efforts to attract candidates in this area, this gem of St. Joe’s remains in need of community help. If you are actively working, available for an hour or two during the day, or retired and would love to take on a biology class, an anatomy/physiology class, or a math class, be assured the curriculum is already prepared. Please help us bring the best in science to our worthy students! Call Bishop LeBlond High or Catherine Neumayr, Head of School for St. Joseph Catholic Academy, at 907-360-9610 to investigate this opportunity. Your sacrifice is our blessing.

Attending Missouri Western this fall? The Catholic Newman Center has a place for you! Located right across the street from the campus entrance, the Catholic Newman Center offers engaging events, the Sacraments, and authentic Catholic community to the students of MWSU. Welcome Week events take place Aug. 28-Sept. 1.
