June 19-20 will be the last weekend that Fr. Leete celebrates weekend Masses for Cathedral, although he will be here until June 30. We hope you will have an opportunity to give him your best wishes before he leaves. However, since he will be celebrating all the Masses at Cathedral and St. Mary’s on June 19-20, he may be rushed between Masses. We will have a basket available at the Masses that weekend if you would like to bring a card or note for him, or you are welcomed to send or bring one to the Parish Office during the week.

“Along with my sister Kathy and brother David, I would like to thank everyone for their prayers and well-wishes during my hospitalization and my recuperation at Living Community. It has been a long road (Feb. – now), but I have recovered. I credit all of the prayers, cards, and visits of friends in giving me the strength to work hard at the recovery process. Thank you from the bottom of my heart. God bless you!” Angela Hurst

Watch live streamed 8:30 AM Sunday Mass and weekday Rosaries at <https://www.facebook.com/pg/CathedralStJoseph/videos/>. The Mass also will be uploaded by Monday morning to: <https://youtube.com/channel/UCxBluxqllL6nE31Elyo3SpQ>

Coming Home to Communion

A Frequently Asked Question is:

“What’s wrong with watching Mass online?”

“Watching and participating in Mass by watching on a computer, tv or mobile device screen is ok in an emergency situation – like, a global pandemic. Now that Bishop Johnston has lifted the general dispensation though, purposely or intentionally skipping Mass without a serious reason (such as illness, bad weather, or the care of infants or loved ones who are ill and cannot be left alone) is a grave sin. Here’s why...we Catholics rightfully speak about, and rejoice in, the Real Presence of Christ in the Holy Eucharist, “Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity” (John 6:52-58). But there is another real presence that is necessary at every celebration of Mass – ours! Our full, conscious, and active participation in the Sacred Liturgy begins with our physical presence at Mass. The Sunday celebration of Mass is also the source of our communion and community life together in all our parishes.”

Our Diocese has updated information online on its website at www.kcsjatholic.org, inviting everyone to Come Home to Communion.

Prayers and Sympathy to the family and friends of Matt Woodrow, our parishioner and husband of Phyllis Woodrow. Please pray for Matt and for his family.

Next week our second collection supports the Catholic Communication Campaign, which connects people with Christ and builds Catholic communities in the US and developing countries using the internet, tv, radio, and print media. Half of the money collected remains in our Diocese to fund local communications efforts. Visit www.usccb.org/ccc.

Please note: A new and improved ONLINE GIVING Program is being implemented effective Monday, June 14. More information coming soon.

“O Lord, hear my voice, for I have called to you; be my help.
Do not abandon or forsake me, O God, my Savior! (Ps 27:7, 9)

Deacon Joshua Fultz’s Message . . . Setting Our Hearts Ablaze

One of my favorite images as an artist has always been the Sacred Heart of Jesus. This image of fiery love calls out to my own heart and makes me ask if my heart burns with the love of Christ. Friday was the solemnity of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, and Saturday is the memorial of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, two hearts that truly burn with a love for all of mankind. So how do we set our hearts ablaze like theirs?

The practice of devotion to the Heart of Jesus has been lived out since Saint John the Apostle placed his head on the breast of Jesus at the Last Supper. Imagine laying your head on the Savior’s chest and hearing his heart beating in a calm and soothing rhythm. Listen to how beautiful it sounds as he speaks the words of consecration over the last supper. We too, can share in that every time we are at the Mass. When I kneel during the consecration, you may notice that I drop my head as Father, acting in the person of Christ, speaks those beautiful words. This is where I let my imagination show me the beauty of that divine moment as I envision laying my head on my Savior. You can do that too, and in fact, I encourage all of you to do this. The Mass is a spiritual event that sometimes we have to close the eyes in our heads and open the eyes in our heart to see.

There is also a more concrete way to devote yourself, your family, and even your entire home to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, called enthronement. Enthronement is a spiritual surrender where we allow Jesus to touch us in a way that is life changing by simply placing an image of the Heart of Jesus as the King of Love in your home. This practice will give you graces to deepen your relationship with the Lord. In a vision to Saint Margaret Mary, Jesus shared that:

“Wherever the Image of My Sacred Heart is publicly exposed and honored, I will pour out graces of sanctification and salvation, I will touch unfeeling hearts, I will reunite divided families, I will help them in all their needs.”

Now more than ever we need to have the strength and grace to live out our Faith in the home and pass our Faith on to our families in a new way. It takes a little preparation, but this 15-minute ceremony can radically set your heart ablaze and bring new life to your domestic church. As the sanctuary church lamp reminds us of Christ’s presence in the tabernacle, the enthroned image of the Sacred Heart reminds us that Jesus is among us and with us. By this covenant we make our homes and hearts His tabernacle.

For more information on the ceremony and enthronement, visit: <https://sacredheartapostolate.com/enthronements/>

Dynamic Parish Summer Reading: There are 10 amazing books on our Summer Book List. Take a copy of this list, find a book that strikes you and read it! You will find copies of the list as well as free copies of book #10 on a table in the West vestibule. The free book is entitled Three Days by Steve Stepien. It is based on the 12-year-old Jesus getting lost in the temple. In the next weeks we will provide a few copies of each of the 10 books for parishioners to check out on loan.

Do you have a favorite book that you would like to share? We invite you to donate a copy to our new parish lending library. Place new or gently used adult or children’s books in the crate located by the Summer Reading Program table. We hope to be able to develop a well-stocked lending library in the future.

Food Pantry volunteer opportunity: Are you available on Friday mornings, 9:00-11:00 AM? Our Food Pantry needs additional individuals to help on Fridays when the Food Pantry is open. Safety protocol still in place with the team members working inside and the patrons waiting outside for their food orders to be processed. If you can help, please contact the Parish Office at 232-7763.

Please contact the Parish Office if you would be able to lead the Rosary once a month before the 4 PM or 8:30 AM weekend Mass.

Coram Deo, the Catholic young adult group will meet on Monday, June 21 for Mondays on the Bluff!! Meet at Cathedral Parish at 6:10 PM for a walking rosary to River Bluff Brewing! Young adults ages 22-35 are invited to attend. Questions? Contact Ally Goetz at goetz.ally@gmail.com.

- Congratulations to Matthew Bobela, our Cathedral Choir Director, who was honored to receive the Nash Music Scholarship from the Missouri State Society Daughters of the American Revolution (MSSDAR) at their State Convention in KC. Thank you to our parishioner and choir member, Dr. Caroline Merrigan, and the St. Joseph MSSDAR Chapter for sponsoring Matthew.
- Thanks, and a tip of the cap to Jeff Daise, Jay and Nikki Page, David Wyble, and Jeremy Winkelbauer for mowing the lots north of the gym! These lots must be mowed regularly, and the job would provide an outstanding opportunity to earn service hours for a school family! Please consider volunteering your time and talent. Just call the Parish Office at 232-7763 for details.

School and St. Gianna’s Center News

- St. Gianna Early Childhood Center has immediate openings for a full-time Infant Lead teacher, a full-time Toddler Lead teacher, and a Preschool Lead Teacher. Those interested must apply by submitting an application, resume, and cover letter through Indeed.com or Paylocity.com or the KCSJ Diocesan Website. Contact Lisa Puett, Early Childhood Director, at 233-9794 for any questions.

Cathedral Garage/Rummage Sale, co-sponsored by St. Anne’s Altar Society & Knights of Columbus Council #5067, is July 16-17 at the K of C Hall, 1205 N. 49th Terrace. Donations will be accepted week of July 12. A leadership team is needed to coordinate this event, as well as many helpers. Please contact our Parish Office, 232-7763, if you can help in any way. Your support of the Altar Society is appreciated!
