Message from Dominic CDeBaca: Cathedral's Food Pantry has become a crucial, reliable source for those in need in our area. Due to the pandemic, several pantries in the area closed permanently, including the pantry of our sister parish, St. Mary's. We have absorbed those pantries' clients and, other factors including inflation, unprecedented unemployment, utility costs, etc., have led Second Harvest to report that we have become the second largest food pantry (by volume) in Buchanan County. We receive food supplies from the USDA monthly via Second Harvest, as well as weekly donations from Little Caesars, Target, Panera, Starbucks, St. Mary's, Our Lady of Guadalupe, and our parishioners, school, and St. Gianna's Center, just to name a few. With the limited monetary donations we receive, we purchase laundry detergent, bar soap, shampoo and container supplies to supplement our food stuffs. We are open 3 days a week for only 90 minutes each, yet we serve an average of 1700 individuals a month, including 500-600 children. We are staffed by about 10 volunteers per day for an average of 240 hours per month. Because we are a Partner Agency with Second Harvest, we are obligated to adhere to all food safety guidelines, submit to inspection, and report our client data and frequency. We work constantly with several outlets in the Second Harvest network including the House of Bread (SFX), the Open Door Food Kitchen, the Crossing Nutrition Center, and we communicate with referrals to AFL-CIO, Catholic Charities, the YWCA and United Way.

Whatever ministry we participate in through our Catholic church, whether it be liturgical in the Mass itself, or through community teaching and outreach, we enact ourselves as the tools of Christ in order to praise Him and give Him glory. It is by the Lord's grace that we are given the opportunity and the ability to use our life and our bodies to do His work here on earth in order to lift up our brothers and sisters. When our volunteers gather to open the food pantry in the mornings, we always begin with a prayer. This prayer asks that the Lord blesses both those that donate to our pantry and those that receive its benefits, and that we are shown Jesus embodied in those that come to our door, and that they may see Christ in us.

Both in the Old and New Testament, the Bible clearly reminds the more fortunate of His children to help the poor and hungry:

Proverbs 22:9 "The kindly man will be blessed, for he gives of his sustenance to the poor."

Matthew 25:35 "For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me,"

Feeding God's children is a constant theme in the Bible, from the bounty of the garden of Eden, manna from heaven in the desert, the loaves and fishes, to the Last Supper. God knows we will be hungry by our very nature and is continually feeding us physically, emotionally, and spiritually. When we take the Eucharist at Mass, we commune with the Lord asking that His flesh become ours, nourishing our mind, our heart, and especially our soul, with all the grace and wisdom He can bestow upon us. We have many in our community that are in a constant state of hunger. This physical hunger affects the mind, heart, and soul as well. How difficult is it for a child to focus their mind on schoolwork when they haven't had breakfast or a decent dinner the night before? How can someone properly face their workday when they are hungry, cold, or need soap to bathe? How can a parent focus on the happiness of their children and family when putting food on the table is a daily struggle? How difficult it must be for someone to resist the temptation to steal food or steal something to sell for food when they haven't eaten in days!

At a recent diocesan retreat for parish staff that I attended, we were reminded that in all our ministries, we should imitate our relationship with the Eucharist. During the Liturgy of the Eucharist, the priest obtains the bread and wine and sets the altar. Then he asks for the Lord's blessing as he performs the Consecration. Next, he separates and metes out the body and blood for all people present and lastly, he distributes Communion. Likewise, yet in a much simpler fashion, our pantry obtains the food and supplies, then we pray and ask it to be blessed by the Lord. Then we separate it accordingly and distribute the food to those in need. Each of these 4 steps is important and necessary to execute God's will. In whatever ministry you are called to, remember to take what is given, pray that it be blessed by the Lord, divide it in order to spread God's gift(s), and give it out freely and unselfishly; never expecting anything more in return than the Lord's reward.

Our Food Pantry is in a constant state of gratitude to our parishioners and all our Cathedral family for your continued support which empowers us to make a difference to so many of those in need. We also find ourselves in a permanent state of appeal. Your contribution to the Aged, Sick, and Poor collection and your spontaneous donations are always a tremendous help, but the need continues to grow. I'd like to give a very special thanks to those people that have donated their time, money, food, clothing, vehicles and fuel, bags and containers, etc. We wouldn't be able to make this difference without you. St. Vincent de Paul, Patron Saint of volunteers, pray for us!

We will not have a 6:15 AM Mass this Tuesday, March 14th.

Bishop Johnston has granted a dispensation from the obligation to abstain from meat next Friday for St. Patrick's Day, on the condition that we still embrace a suitable penance. Please consider giving something else up next Friday if you plan to enjoy corned beef!

In preparation for the St. Joseph Day Dinner and Table on March 18th, many helpers are needed: On Friday, March 17th, at 9:30 am, please help transport items from the cafeteria to the gym and set up tables/chairs; decorate tables at 10:30 am. Volunteers also needed on March 18th any time beginning at 9 am, to help before, during, and after the event. Many positions available. If not able to help, please bring a dessert or goodie for the Table. Contact Alrita Wagner at 816-387-7145.
