Come Home to Communion

Bishop Johnston wrote in his letter: "As circumstances have significantly improved due to the availability of vaccines and other factors, I withdraw the general dispensation from the holy obligation to participate in Sunday Mass and Holy Days of Obligation effective June 1, 2021, in advance of the Feast of Corpus Christi June 5-6, 2021. Those with serious health concerns, pre-existing conditions, or who are caregivers to the vulnerable continue to have the grant of a particular dispensation.

I invite all who are no longer dispensed to 'Come Home to Communion'. I invite you to return to the Real Presence of Christ with your real presence at the Mass. If you have returned to the grocery store, the gym, the office or dining in restaurants, you can feel safe in returning to church. Visit www.ksjcatholic.org/comehome for ways to spread the word, invite friends to 'Come Home to Communion', and continue to keep the Lord's day sacred."

Prayers and Sympathy to the family and friends of Kathleen Strube, our parishioner. Please pray for Kathleen & family.

Seminarian Pius Nsoh-Awasom’s message . . .

Dear Parishioners,

By the time you read this, I will already be in Bracciano, Italy, on a week-long silent retreat. Therefore, I wish to extend my gratitude for your generosity before I leave. From the depths of my heart, I want to extend my appreciation for all your generosity that is enabling me to attend this Rome Experience. Thank you for your financial contributions that have helped make it possible, but most especially, thank you for all the prayers.

I am so excited to walk in the footsteps of some of my favourite saints and to spent time with them physically, not just spiritually in prayer! It is so cool to be able to spend time kneeling in prayer before the bodies of the men and women who have been such big influences in the journey of my faith, as well as being great role models as we all seek to imitate the life of Jesus Christ. On a lighter note, I have heard great things about the food and authentic gelato, so before my time in the Eternal City is over, I will make sure to experience those treats to the fullest.

Once again, I cannot extend enough thanks and appreciation for the many hands and generous hearts that have allowed me to have this tremendous opportunity. I pray that the Lord will continue to bless this parish family abundantly. Be assured of my prayers and see you in July!
