The Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph is committed to combatting sexual abuse in the Church. If you are a victim of sexual abuse, or if you observe or suspect sexual abuse:

1. Call the Missouri Child Abuse Hotline at 1-800-392-3738 (if the victim is currently under the age of 18), and
2. Contact your local law enforcement agency or call 911, and
3. After reporting to these civil and law enforcement authorities, report suspected sexual abuse of a minor or vulnerable adult to the Diocesan Ombudsman, Joe Crayon, 816-812-2500 or crayon@ombudsmankcsj.org, if the abuse involves a priest, deacon, employee, or volunteer of the Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph.

The Diocese has a sincere commitment to providing care and healing resources to victims of sexual abuse and their families. Please contact Whitney True-Francis, the Victim Assistance Coordinator, at 816-392-0011 or true.francis@diocesekcsj.org for more information.

- John Gierach, the brother of Lee Stock
- Janice Jenkins, the sister of Pat Saulan and aunt of Kathleen Saulan

Please pray for John, Janice, and their families.

“Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?” If you ask the Lord this question in prayer, are you ready to respond with a joyful “yes” or will you turn from Him with a heavy, unyielding heart? Consider following Christ more closely as a priest or in consecrated life. Questions? Please contact Fr. Nathan Rueb, 816-756-1850.

This weekend is Commitment Weekend for the 2024-2025 Annual Catholic Appeal (ACA). This past week, many of you may have received a letter from Bishop Johnston asking for your support. Please consider a one-time gift/or making a pledge to this year's campaign. You can either drop the Annual Catholic Appeal envelope in the mail, or bring it to Mass next weekend to drop in the collection basket. There are extra envelopes in our church pews. Our parish goal is 100% participation. No gift is too small. Please join our effort to support the ministry works in our Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph.

Next weekend, October 19-20, our second collection will be for World Mission Sunday and the work of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. World Mission Sunday is an effort of the entire Church to help over 1,100 dioceses that cannot sustain themselves because they are too poor, young, or actively persecuted. See the bulletin boards inside the side entrances of the church for more information.

A message from Deacon Joshua Fultz

As we get closer to election day, we have heard a lot about the economy from the candidates, the pundits, and the talking heads on TV and social media. Everyone seems to have an opinion. The only thing I can tell you for a fact is that my dollar doesn't buy as many groceries as it used to. What does that mean? Well, for the poor, it means many more days without food and other necessities. For some, it will mean a winter with no heat; for others, it may mean no longer having a home.

This weekend, we will hear from Bishop Johnston asking us to consider giving to the 2024-2025 Annual Catholic Appeal. For some, it will be no problem, but for others, it may mean giving up something in exchange. It might be a luxury item like our favorite $7-$10 cup of coffee, or it might mean eating peanut butter and jelly for the next year. It will be different for each of us. I know what you're thinking. "Oh great, now the deacon is going to start asking us for money." Rest easy; that is not the case. I'm not going to ask you for money, but I am asking you to pay attention to the first reading and pray for prudence and wisdom.

As a deacon, I hear grumblings about the physical condition of our parishes. "When are they going to fix..." or "Why are they spending money on this when they should spend it on that?" Even I am guilty of it. I pray to win the lottery so that maybe I can pay to see both parishes have their ceilings restored. So far, that prayer hasn't worked. Do you know why? Because that is the prayer of the rich young man in today's Gospel. That prayer amounts to "Lord, just give me the money so I don't have to do anything or give up any of my 'stuff' for you." That is not what Jesus calls us to do. He calls us to place more value on where we will spend eternity than on living comfortably in our short time here on earth. It doesn't mean we have to give up everything, but it does mean we need to not be attached to it. Everything in this world will wither and decay; it's better to store up treasure in heaven.

I don't want to tell you how to spend your money. That is for each of you to decide, but do it with the words of Jesus in mind: "Amen, I say to you, there is no one who has given up house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or lands for my sake and for the sake of the gospel who will not receive a hundred times more now in this present age: houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and lands, with persecutions, and eternal life in the age to come."

May God bless you all and your gifts of time, talent and treasure! ~ Dcn. Joshua Fultz

Ladies, don't forget about the Altar Society Meeting and fun creating your own "Otto and Valda" out of material and lightbulbs (kits provided). Come enjoy great fellowship on Tuesday, Oct. 15, at 6:00 PM in Ruggle Hall. Questions? Contact Alrita, 816-387-7145.

Parents of Public School/Home School Students in 6th – 12th grade: Guidelines for receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation have changed, and this year (2024-2025), those who haven't been Confirmed can complete some formation in preparation to receive the Sacrament on Nov. 3rd, 2024, March 16th, 2025, or Oct. 26, 2025. If your son/daughter is in those grades and has not received the Sacrament of Confirmation, please contact our Parish Office at ecobb@cathedralsj.org, tteschner@cathedralsj.org, or 816-232-7763 for more information. Please pass along this information to your families, friends, and others who may also be interested.

IT'S NOT TOO LATE to bring your public school or home school children (K-Grade 8) to our CATHECHISM CLASSES (formerly called the School of Religion). The classes meet each Sunday, 9:45-10:45 am, in St. Anne's Room (in the basement of the church, next to Ruggle Hall). Our Seminarian Intern, Xavier Schmidt, and our parishioner, Julie Kammerer, look forward to teaching your children on Sunday mornings!

Coram Deo is a Eucharistic-centered Catholic group which exists to meet the needs of young adults (ages 22-35) in the St. Joseph area and to provide opportunities for spiritual growth and fellowship. Coram Deo is meeting on Monday, Oct. 28, 6:10 PM here at our Cathedral, for a walking rosary, followed by pizza + drinks at River Bluff Brewing. Questions? Contact Ally Gabler at allygabler@gmail.com.

St. Mary Church (1606 N. 2nd St) is having their 133rd Annual Fall Festival on Sat., November 2nd, 5:00-8:00 PM. Let's support St. Mary's only major fundraising event, and enjoy chili, soup, hot dogs, desserts, drinks; games for kids, cake/snack walk, 50/50, and more; raffles for handmade quilt, cash prizes, ham/turkey raffle; Altar Society Country Store, Wine Pull, and a fun evening!

The next Rachel's Vineyard Retreat in KC will be on Oct. 18-20. It offers a supportive, confidential, and non-judgmental environment where women and men can express, release, and reconcile painful post-abortive emotions to begin the process of restoration, renewal and healing. For information for this or future retreats, contact www.rachelsvineyard.org or Teresa O'Donnell at 816-679-4973.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

On October 20, as we observe World Mission Sunday, we stand in solidarity with the Missions of the Church in this annual worldwide Eucharistic celebration.

As we gather in communion this World Mission Sunday, I extend to you a heartfelt invitation from Pope Francis, inspired by the Gospel: "Go and invite everyone to the banquet (cf. Mt 22:9)." This call to mission resonates deeply with our faith's core, urging us to share God's love with the world.

Over a century ago, our own Catholic community in the United States was nurtured through the generosity of the worldwide Church that contributed to what is today this second collection. Now, we are called to extend that same generosity to our brothers and sisters in over 1,150 mission territories across Asia, Africa, Latin America, the Pacific Islands, and the Middle East.

The collection on World Mission Sunday directly supports seminaries, future religious sisters, catechists, Catholic schools that provide essential education, and healthcare centers that provide essential care, embodying the love of Christ.

As members of the Catholic Church, which is universal by its very nature, we are invited to participate actively in this mission. Our contributions and prayers on World Mission Sunday support the Church's vital work of evangelization, inviting all to experience the joy and hope found in Christ.

I urge you, dear friends, to respond generously to this call. Let us unite in prayer for the success of the Church's missionary activities and for the missionaries who dedicate their lives to spreading the Gospel. Your generosity is a powerful witness to the love and compassion at the heart of our faith.

May this World Mission Sunday deepen our commitment to the Church's universal mission. Together, let us rejoice in the opportunity to share God's love with the world, inviting everyone to life in Christ.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend James V. Johnston, Jr.
Bishop of Kansas City-St. Joseph

Octubre del 2024

Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas en Cristo,

El 20 de octubre, al conmemorar el Domingo Mundial de las Misiones, nos unimos en solidaridad con las Misiones de la Iglesia en esta celebración eucarística mundial anual.

Al reunirnos en comunión este Domingo Mundial de las Misiones, les extiendo una sincera invitación del Papa Francisco, inspirada en el Evangelio: "Vayan e inviten a todos al banquete (cf. Mt 22,9)." Este llamado a la misión resuena profundamente en el núcleo de nuestra fe, instándonos a compartir el amor de Dios con el mundo.

Hace más de un siglo, nuestra propia comunidad católica en los Estados Unidos fue nutrida por la generosidad de la Iglesia mundial que contribuyó a lo que hoy es esta segunda colecta. Ahora, estamos llamados a extender esa misma generosidad a nuestros hermanos y hermanas en más de 1,150 territorios de misión en Asia, África, América Latina, las Islas del Pacífico y el Medio Oriente.

La colecta del Domingo Mundial de las Misiones apoya directamente a los seminarios, futuras religiosas, catequistas, escuelas católicas que proporcionan educación esencial y centros de salud que brindan atención esencial, encarnando el amor de Cristo.

Como miembros de la Iglesia Católica, que es universal por su propia naturaleza, estamos invitados a participar activamente en esta misión. Nuestras contribuciones y oraciones en el Domingo Mundial de las Misiones apoyan el trabajo vital de evangelización de la Iglesia, invitando a todos a experimentar la alegría y la esperanza que se encuentran en Cristo.

Les insto, queridos amigos, a responder generosamente a este llamado. Unámonos en oración por el éxito de las actividades misioneras de la Iglesia y por los misioneros que dedican sus vidas a difundir el Evangelio. Su generosidad es un testimonio poderoso del amor y la compasión que están en el corazón de nuestra fe.

Que este Domingo Mundial de las Misiones profundice nuestro compromiso con la misión universal de la Iglesia. Juntos, regocijémonos en la oportunidad de compartir el amor de Dios con el mundo, invitando a todos a la vida en Cristo.

Sinceramente en Cristo,

Reverendísimo James V. Johnston, Jr.
Obispo de Kansas City-St. Joseph
