The 2022 Annual Catholic Appeal (ACA) provides the funds for the pastoral, educational and charitable ministries of the Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph. This year's ACA theme, "To equip the holy ones for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ" (Ephesians 4:12), calls us to come together as a people of God to live and share the faith we profess as we carry forth the mission of Jesus Christ. When you receive your Annual Catholic Appeal invitation mailing from Bishop Johnston, please take time to read the information thoroughly, how you can help and give prayerful consideration when contemplating your sacrificial gift to the Annual Catholic Appeal.

Next weekend, October 23-24, we will celebrate World Mission Sunday. Pope Francis invites the entire Church to support mission dioceses in Africa, Asia, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe, where priests, religious and lay leaders serve the World's most vulnerable communities. Please keep the Pope's missions in your prayers and be generous in next weekend's collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith.

Father Hansen will speak about our faith at the Oct. 20th Serra Club meeting. All welcome to come at 6:30 PM to Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish's Marian Hall (in their church basement). Refreshments served. Sponsored by the St. Joseph St. Serra Lay Apostolate for Vocations.

Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you. (Ps 33)

Father Hansen's message . . .

If today were not a Sunday it would be the Memorial of St. Ignatius of Antioch. He, in about the year 115, used the word Catholic to describe the Church. He wrote, including the word Catholic, this:

See that you all follow the bishop, even as Jesus Christ does the Father, and the presbytery as you would the apostles; and reverence the deacons, as being the institution of God. Let no man do anything connected with the Church without the bishop. Let that be deemed a proper Eucharist, which is administered either by the bishop, or by one to whom he has entrusted it. Wherever the bishop shall appear, there let the multitude of the people also be; even as wherever Jesus Christ is, there is the Catholic Church. —Letter to the Smyrnaeans, Ch 8

This past Monday we celebrated the Memorial of Pope St. John XXII, who called the Second Vatican Council on that day (October 11) in 1962. When Pope St. John opened the Council, he said this:

The Church has never failed to oppose these errors, and has even condemned them often, indeed with the greatest severity. But at the present time the Spouse of Christ is pleased to apply the medicine of mercy, rather than take up the weapons of severity. She judges it prudent to meet the needs of today by demonstrating more amply the power of her teaching, rather than by condemning.

As we go through our ordinary lives and are thankful for the Eucharistic presence of God in our Tabernacles and in the handing down of the teachings on faith and morals, infallibly let us share these truths and gifts with Mercy! Let us be mindful that another Pope and Saint, John Paul II, said that “the greatest attribute of God is Mercy!”
