Father Hansen's Message . . . Below you'll find a small section of the Catechism of the Catholic Church. November 2nd is All Souls Day. Let's pray a lot for the souls in purgatory and be grateful that our prayers for them make our prayers and sacrifices more efficacious.

III. The Final Purification, or Purgatory

1030 All who die in God's grace and friendship, but still imperfectly purified, are indeed assured of their eternal salvation; but after death they undergo purification, so as to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven.

1031 The Church gives the name Purgatory to this final purification of the elect, which is entirely different from the punishment of the damned.⁶⁰⁴ The Church formulated her doctrine of faith on Purgatory especially at the Councils of Florence and Trent. The tradition of the Church, by reference to certain texts of Scripture, speaks of a cleansing fire.⁶⁰⁵

As for certain lesser faults, we must believe that, before the Final Judgment, there is a purifying fire. He who is truth says that whoever utters blasphemy against the Holy Spirit will be pardoned neither in this age nor in the age to come. From this sentence we understand that certain offenses can be forgiven in this age, but certain others in the age to come.⁶⁰⁶

1032 This teaching is also based on the practice of prayer for the dead, already mentioned in Sacred Scripture: "Therefore [Judas Maccabeus] made atonement for the dead, that they might be delivered from their sin."⁶⁰⁷ From the beginning the Church has honored the memory of the dead and offered prayers in suffrage for them, above all the Eucharistic sacrifice, so that, thus purified, they may attain the beatific vision of God.⁶⁰⁸ The Church also commends almsgiving, indulgences, and works of penance undertaken on behalf of the dead:

Let us help and commemorate them. If Job's sons were purified by their father's sacrifice, why would we doubt that our offerings for the dead bring them some consolation? Let us not hesitate to help those who have died and to offer our prayers for them.⁶⁰⁹

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament will be on Monday-Friday next week. Spend a quiet hour with the Lord in Church. Please sign up at <https://signup.com/go/yeSjCoj>, contact Sara King at adoration@cathedralsj.org, or add your name to the schedule on the small table in the daily chapel in Church.

Meal Train For Our Priests: Would you like to prepare a low sodium meal for two OR send a restaurant gift card to our priests? Our priests appreciate your thoughtfulness. Only sign up as often as you would like. Call Chris Den Ouden, 816-294-7435, for meal or restaurant suggestions.

Thank you to all our ladies that donated baked goods for the Altar Society Cake Walk at the Cathedral Hill Day on October 1st, and to the volunteers Evelyn Wyble, Evie Wyble, Lisa Sanders, Carolyn Robertson, and Ann Gronniger for making it a great success. Our $359 profit will be donated to our Cathedral Front Door Restoration project.

Our next Altar Society meeting will be on Tues., Nov. 15, at 6 pm in St. Anne's Room. In the spirit of giving, we have a fun project: "No Sew Fleece Scarves". We can work on this together and donate the scarves to the Food Pantry. It would be awesome for us to also bring food items, paper products, sundry items and/or cash donations for the Food Pantry and add to our giving project. The Altar Society will match the cash donations as we did at our last meeting, and also have a 50/50 drawing and door prizes! Have questions? Contact Alrita Wagner, 816-387-7145 or recreatesjewelry@gmail.com.

The leaves are changing and it's time to get out your fall or winter coat! Normally, our Food Pantry does not accept and distribute clothing donations; however, it's the time of year when those in need could really use your "gently-worn" coat, jacket, scarf, gloves, etc., to help keep them warm. If you're cleaning out your closet, please consider our Food Pantry, and we'll help you get them to someone that will greatly appreciate your thoughtfulness. Any cold weather items can be placed in the Food Pantry donation sites in church or drop them by the Parish Office. Thank you for your continued support.
