Message from Deacon Joshua Fultz . . . Have No Anxiety

This week, we hear from St. Paul, "Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God." I imagine more than a few of you are thinking, "Yeah, right!" The events of the past three years are enough to cause anxiety in anyone. Don't worry, I won't name them here so that you can read this article in peace, but don't discount the words of Paul. The rates of anxiety are indeed going through the roof; more than 84% of psychologists have stated they have seen a dramatic increase in those seeking treatment. Anxiety is a ferocious enemy, which should give you an idea of where it finds its roots.

In deliverance ministry, we often walk people through the process of praying against the Spirit of Anxiety. You read that right, I said spirit. That feeling of worry and uncertainty about the future is nothing new; in fact, even Padre Pio dealt with it. Shortly after his ordination, Padre Pio became very ill, so much so that he had to live apart from his community for a short time. While his doctors pondered this strange illness, Padre Pio began to pray regularly, offering up his suffering for the salvation of souls. He once said, "I am fully convinced that my illness is due to a special permission from God."

He heeded the words of Paul and didn't condemn God for his suffering. By prayer, petition, and thanksgiving, he made his requests known to God and united his suffering with that of Jesus Christ. He became so united with Christ that his faith was rewarded with the signs of stigmata or the visible wounds of Christ on his own body. When asked about anxiety, Padre Pio said, "You say you are anxious about the future, but don't you know that the Lord is with you always and that our enemy has no power over one who has resolved to belong entirely to Jesus?"

So, when anxiety raises its ugly head, take a note from Padre Pio's playbook, and remove all of its power over you:

1. Realize you are a beloved child of God.
2. Say, "In the name of Jesus Christ, I renounce the spirits of anxiety, uncertainty, and discouragement, and I command them to go to the foot of the cross."
3. Remember the words of Padre Pio: "Everything I suffer is for the greater glory of God."
4. Then make your request known and ask God for his peace that surpasses all understanding and will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.

May the peace of the Lord be with you all.
